

Gaining a Competitive Edge Doing Business with the UK Post Brexit

As the UK prepares to leave the European Union, at our latest event we've brought together an expert panel to explore what Brexit means for the future of trade, the opportunities for businesses from Estonia and across Europe and strength and depth of capability from across the UK in regional hubs such as Leeds.

Join us in the build up to Latitude 59 and learn what the decision means for businesses, where opportunities are likely to be and how you can best respond to gain a competitive edge by doing business with post Brexit Britain.

WHAT	Brexit Briefing Event
WHEN	Tuesday 23 rd May 2017 at 5.30 pm
WHERE	Lift99 Telliskivi 60a, 10412 Tallinn

Keynote Speakers

Paul Berwin - Founder and Senior Partner at Berwins

Industry ranked and with decades of experience in legal practice, Paul is one of the foremost authorities on digital law in the North of England. He routinely supports a global client base to unlock their potential in new and existing markets.

Dr Chris Sier - Fintech Envoy to the Northern Powerhouse

Chris works with the UK Treasury to support the development of national and international centres of excellence in Fintech. Focusing on the UK's great northern cities, he is in the unique position to offer fresh insight on international trade.

Register now at businesspostbrexit.eventbrite.com

 events@berwin.co.uk  @berwins_digital

If you cannot attend the event, but wish to take advantage of the opportunity to meet Paul Berwin during the week or at Latitude59, please contact him by email on paulberwin@berwin.co.uk to arrange a meeting.